Ex-Scout leader faces sex charges

Special to The Light

CANYON LAKE - A Comal County grand jury Wednesday indicted a former Boy Scout volunteer on six counts of indecency with a child involving five boys, charging that he allegedly fondled them or exposed himself to them at a Boy Scout camp near here earlier this ar.

Kenneth Clark, 28, who was a volunteer at the El Rancho Cima Scout Camp at the time of the alleged assaults, has been free since he posted $15,000 bond when he first was arrested in June on two charges of indecency with a child.

At the time, Comal County Sheriff's Department Lt. Rudy Rubio said several other cases were pending against Clark and would be presented to a grand jury.

County officials said Clark could be asked to put up a higher bond and be arrested again on the additional four charges after state District Judge Robert Pfeuffer reviews the indictment today.

Three indictments were returned against Clark Wednesday.

The first alleges Clark committed indecency with one child twice, on April 21 and June 13. The second alleges he committed the same crime with three different children also on June 13. And the third indictment alleges the same crime involving yet another child, also on June 13.

Scouting officials said Clark, an assistant scout master, was dismissed immediately from the voluntary post after the alleged crimes were reported.

None of the boys was from San Antonio.

NEW BRAUNFELS - A former Canyon Lake Boy Scout Troop leader was charged in three indictments Wednesday with six counts of indecency with a child stemming from allegations made after a scout camp retreat.

Kenneth Clark, 28, of the 100 block of Water Oak Lane at Canyon Lake was indicted by a Comal County grand jury.

He is currently free on $15,000 bond, posted June 19 at the time of his initial arrest.

Court records show Clark, a former volunteer leader with Canyon Lake Scout Troop No. 320, is accused in five incidents that occurred June 13 and one on April 21.

The victims are five boys ages 11-13, records show.

The June 13 incidents occurred during a retreat at El Rancho Cima, a Canyon Lake scout camp owned by the Houston-based Sam Houston Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Residents of an apartment complex on the near North Side were without water for three days because the owner left town and didn't pay the water bill, officials said.

Tenants — some of whom had gone without showers for three days — seemed ecstatic Wednesday night when officials of the City Water Board agreed to turn the water back on after meeting with many of them.

The water went back on Wednesday night.

"A bath!" exclaimed resident Vickie Colbath after the agreement was reached. "I'm going to take a long cool bath. I'm going to go down the drain with it."

The water will stay on until July 4, when the lienholder, Caprock Savings and Loan of Lubbock, is expected to foreclose on the property and assume ownership.

CWB spokesman John Foggess said the owner of the complex "defaulted on the payment, left town and we have been unable to contact him." The owner left the complex about two weeks ago without paying a water bill that had climbed to about $12,100, Boggess said.

Richard Houghling, a former security guard at the complex, said the owner left without telling residents of the water situation.

The owner, who was believed to be attending a religious convention in Tennessee, did not return telephone calls from the Express-News to a Tennessee hotel Wednesday.

The water was first shut off Friday, Boggess said.

"But someone came out and turned the water back on and smashed the meter beyond repair," Boggess said. "We removed the meter and turned the water back off Monday."

Since then, the estimated 50 families who live in the 97-unit complex have had to haul water or use water from the swimming pool to cook, flush toilets and take baths, residents said. Some residents arranged to buy bottled water from the Utopia Water company.

Scout aide accused of indecency with scouts

CANYON LAKE — An assistant Boy Scout leader has been charged with indecency with a child. The sheriff's office said two scouts told of incidents at an area camp last winter and this month, and there may be more.

One incident involved fondling and the other exposure while the suspect was acting as an assistant scoutmaster, sheriff's Sgt. Dennis Koeppe said.

Investigators on Wednesday continued to interview other possible victims who were at El Rancho Chino Scout Camp on Ranch Road 32 in December and June.

"Two of the kids came forward and we filed charges. Other kids came forward and said this also happened to them. We're going to take those cases to the district attorney," Koeppe said.

Kenneth Clark, 28, a San Antonio grocery store clerk, charged with indecency with a child by exposure, and by contact, has been released from Comal County Jail after posting bonds totaling $15,000 set by Justice of the Peace Howard Smith.

Koeppe said several boys between the ages of 10 and 13 told authorities in early June that they watched or had been victimized in December and June incidents.

Identals he could understand why someone turned the water back on over the weekend, although it was an illegal act.

Boggess said notices were hung on apartment doorknobs to notify tenants that the water would be turned off "but someone came and removed our notices."

After a company driver, Toby Hernandez, learned of the situation, he arranged for delivery of free bottled water.

Residents contacted the CWB, and the Wednesday night meeting was set.

Scout master arrested on indecency charges

By STEPHANIE DAVIS
Staff Writer

An assistant scout master is out on $15,000 bond from the Comal County jail today after he was charged Monday with two charges of indecency with a child.

Kenneth Clark, 28, Canyon Lake, was arrested Monday after a Comal County sheriff's office investigation linked him to a June 13 incident at the El Rancho Sima Boy Scout Camp where two 11-year-old boys were reportedly molested. One bond was set at $10,000 while the other was at $5,000.

Clark turned himself in to authorities after Sgt. Detective Dennis Koepp called him at work and said he had two warrants issued for his arrest.

Koepp said Clark had been involved with the camp since December 1988.

"We're presenting other cases to the district attorney for his consideration in case he wants to take it to the grand jury," said Chief Deputy Wayne Hoberz.

FRONT COUNCIL

JUNE 13 1989

AT APPROXIMATELY 6:45 PM BILL PHILLIPS APPROACHED ME TO INFORM ME OF AN INCIDENT OF HIS ASST. SCOUT MASTER FONDLING SOME SCOUTS. IT SEEMS THAT THEY HAD HELD A TROOP SWIM AT COONS Ledge where in the water he had fondled some scouts and approached others.

THERE HAD ALSO BEEN AN INCIDENT WHERE SOME SCOUTS HAD WITNESSED THE ASST MASTERBATING IN HIS TENT.

WE IMMEDIATELY CONFRONTED [REDACTED] WITH THIS NEW FOUND INFORMATION. AFTER A BRIEF DISCUSSION IT WAS DECIDED TO GO TO THE SITE AND QUESTION THE SCOUTS.

WE DROVE TO THE CAMP SITE WHERE WE QUESTIONED ALL SCOUTS INVOLVED AND FOUND THE STORIES TO BE FACTUAL. AT THIS POINT WE ASKED THE LEADER TO ATTEND A MEETING AT THE RESERVATION DIRECTOR'S HOUSE. (IT TOOK AT LEAST 3 HOURS TO INFORM BOTH SCOUT EXECUTIVES)

During this time the LEADER WAS TOLD TO REMAIN ON THE PORCH. HE NEVER ONCE QUESTIONED WHY HE WAS THERE AND NOT BACK IN HIS SITE. IT BECAME APPARENT TO ME THAT HE WAS NOT QUITE ALL THERE MENTALLY.

AFTER WE GOT PERMISSION FROM THE SCOUT EXECUTIVES THE LEADER WAS INFORMED HE WAS SUSPENDED FROM SCOUTING. HE DID NOT QUESTION THIS UNTIL LEAVING HIS CAMP SITE. HE ASKED IF HE HAD "TAUGHT SOMETHING ~~WAS~~ WRONG OR WHAT". HE WAS EXPLAINED ONCE AGAIN OF THE REASON FOR HIS SUSPENSION. HE LEFT THE PROPERTY AT AROUND 12:00 AM. THE COUNTY SHERIFF CAME TO THE CAMP TO MAKE A REPORT AND SCOUTS INVOLVED WERE ALLOWED TO CALL HOME.

follow-up on where and when [REDACTED] drove up to the corrals and said we needed to talk. I suggested that we go to my home.

At the house, they informed me that we had a potential problem with an Assistant Scoutmaster in Troop 320 from the [REDACTED] Area Council. They said there was a good possibility that he had violated the BSA's youth protection policies. They said that he had masturbated in view of two older Scouts that afternoon in the campsite and that he had fondled at least two others that afternoon in the river.

I asked about the incidents and [REDACTED] said he'd noticed at supper that some of the Scouts in the troop did not

When Bill finished his story, I told him that we needed to do several things. One was since the troop was from Alamo Area Council and the leadership was registered and approved by them, he needed to call their Scout Executive, Parvin Bishop. Bill called his home and got a he did. Bill told Jim what had happened and then I talked with him. We discussed some of what had happened and once we made further positive determination of the events and we felt Kenneth had to leave the camp, would the Plano Area Council suspend his membership? After talking with Jim, I asked him to continue to attempt to contact Parvin and that we were going to talk with the Scouts and if their stories were adequate, we would separate them.

also asked Kenneth if he'd come with us back to the house.

Steve let me to let him know what had been done so far and he let me know that he'd talked with Roger about the situation. Roger said he'd be home all evening and not to hesitate to call him if we had difficulties. Bill then called Parvin and they talked awhile and then Parvin asked to speak with me. After talking with him, I asked that he call and talk with Roger. It was a joint problem, not just ours, since it involved a Alexander Law 11 days

Then outlined our next steps to Bill (Steve and [REDACTED] our Cub Ranger). This involved informing Kenneth of his suspension of BSA membership and removal from the property, having [REDACTED] go to the Guest House to contact CPS and the Scouts parents and having Steve go to get the Scouts and take them to the Guest House. We confirmed the things we were going to do and we went outside to talk with Kenneth.

Bill told him that his BSA membership had been suspended and was being asked to leave the property immediately as we had reason to believe that he had violated the youth protection policies of The Boy Scouts of America.

Bill and Steve then left and river camp and the downhill parking lot where he unloaded his gear and placed it in a Toyota pick-up truck. Just before he got into his truck, Kenneth patted C.E. three times on the leg and told him to keep the troop going. Kenneth started out of the parking lot with us following, stopped at got to the top of Appetite Hill, if he'd pull over, he could follow us out. He did so and he crossed our cattle guard and onto the highway at 11:44 p.m.

C.E. and I returned to the Guest House where Steve and Bill were with the Scouts. Bill was talking with a parent while Steve entertaining the boys. Bill soon finished with the last boy and parent and told us that he'd contacted the Comal County Sheriff's office who told him to contact the County Department of Human Services. They in turn contacted the Sheriff's Department who said they would send a deputy to investigate.

A little while later, Deputy Morales arrived, spoke to the boys and the [redacted] asked to speak with [redacted] and myself. He asked us to walk him through the events of the afternoon and evening. We did so and he asked us some questions. He then wrote the boys names, birthdays and their parents names and addresses. Bill gave him a roster with this information. Deputy Morales also asked for a description of Kenneth and any information that we may have about him. Deputy Morales said he'd file his report and that a detective would contact the boys and us the next day. We insisted that the detective talk with the parents before contacting the boys. He agreed and wrote it in his report. Deputy Morales left and since it was pouring down rain, we waited out the storm before taking the Scouts back to their camp site. I called [REDACTED] to let him know the outcome of the evenings events and that we would talk with the Alamo Area Council later that morning and let them know what had taken place.

I spoke with Jim Kimiski on Wednesday morning and walked him through the events of the previous evening. I told him That Bill and I would keep him informed them to the Guest House where he contacted the parents. He also informed the Comal County Sheriff's office of these new events as well as the Alamo Area Council.

One of the new youth involved [REDACTED] called the Scout Service Center and since Roger was on vacation, told Steve Leland of these events. As a result of [REDACTED] involvement I spent about an hour with [REDACTED] on Thursday afternoon talking with him and trying to help him to better understand.

Bill came by my residence Thursday evening and said that the parents had an interest in organizing Saturday evening with the leadership of the Alamo Area Council to discuss the events of the week. I offered the Horseshoe Bend dining facility to them and confirmed it the next day.
